BUILT FOR INVESTIGATORS: ON-DEMAND DATA ANALYTICS

DISCOVERY—DATA ANALYTICS IN THE CLOUD FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Police agencies around the world are grappling with an overwhelming volume of data generated from diverse sources—surveillance footage, body cam videos, 911 call logs, forensic reports, and more. To effectively manage and analyze this information, agencies need a unified platform that meets the complex demands of modern investigations.

INTRODUCING SS8 DISCOVERY

SS8 Discovery is a secure, cloud-based solution designed specifically for investigators and analysts. Built on the trusted foundation of our Intellego XT platform—and already in use by law enforcement and intelligence agencies globally—Discovery provides the tools needed to manage today's data challenges with speed, precision, and reliability.

KEY FEATURES OF DISCOVERY

- Cost-efficient, subscription-based, cloud-native solution

- Access advanced analytics anytime, anywhere

- Scalable: easily add or remove seats

- Tamper-proof system ensures evidence holds up in court

Investigations increasingly rely on combining large volumes of digital evidence with external data sources such as social media, financial transactions, and court records. However, this information is often siloed across multiple systems, making it time-consuming and expensive to consolidate. Manual data collection and analysis can slow investigations and increase the risk of errors, threatening the integrity and admissibility of evidence.

SS8 Discovery addresses these challenges head-on. As a Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) solution, it delivers advanced data fusion, analytics, and monitoring capabilities—all in a flexible, scalable platform. Agencies benefit from subscription-based pricing, allowing them to adjust user access based on case load, staffing changes, or budget constraints.
